Storm Safety Advice for Customers

Never touch or go near a fallen power line. Assume it is live.

Report fallen lines straight away on the 24-hour outage line printed on your bill.

Switch off sensitive appliances during an outage to protect them when supply returns.

During storms, restoration times are estimates and can change as crews find more damage.